17	The parties, through their respective counsel, agree upon the following facts:
18	1. This case is currently set for Trial on July 10, 2007. However, one of government's central witnesses FBI Agent is unavailable.
	D, CARRECT RECONSTRUCTOR 5-6339 2. In addition, the parties a	are at	tempting to set up meetings between defense
20	counsel and the government attorneys to discuss possible resolution of the case. Because of the 21	complexity of the accounting in this case, these meetings take considerable preparation. If
22	successful, however, these meetings could res	ult in	a resolution of this case without trial. All
23	counsel believe this is a case which should be	reso	ved without trial to avoid any further
24	government resources and attorneys fees.
25	3. In addition, because of	the c	omplexity of the case and the trial schedules
26	of both parties, the parties agree that they need
